Chapter 1 by Panda

I started to approach the storm I was walking for a month holding a small rucksack. My whole body was frozen there was nowhere to run to not knowing where I was because there was only white snow surrounding me. I knew I had little time until I would freeze to death and my body wouldn't be found since I was in the middle of nowhere. It would be a slow and lonely death. I collapsed onto the crystal white snow my life was slipping out of my hand to quick but to slow. What have I done and how did I get here?

'AAHHH' I SCREAMED somebody had yanked my hair. The air was warm and humid and smelt like apple pies. "Get of me!" I yelled while swatting the person's hand of my hair. "Sorry Gem just trying to wake you up .Eat." his voice was strong but with a slight drop of kindness I looked up a man stood he was muscular and had lots of tattoos also he was about 41 years old. How did he know my name? "What did you say?" I was starving I couldn't resist the sweet smell of summer soup it was a mix of fruit, milk, water and magnus sugar. I dug in. 'he is a good cook' I thought. Ignoring my question? You ugly man! "We found you near the frozen borders near Atlane how did you get there?" Ignoring my question he asked concerned but I didn't look up. "Gem, Gemma. Hello?" I looked up, my face red from the heat. "It has nothing to do with you." I snapped but really I didn't know I just kept staring at my feet they were suddenly very interesting.
